What to expect when signing up for START in Corvallis

- On-campus Engagement: Immerse yourself in the OSU community with both days of START in person! Day 1 features group sessions connecting you with life as an OSU student. Lock in your advising appointment for day two, setting the stage for a personalized academic journey.
- Empowering Advising Sessions: Day 2 is all about you and your academic aspirations. Meet face-to-face with your dedicated academic advising team, explore exciting course options, and finalize your fall class registration. Remote advising is available if joining us physically isn't feasible, ensuring your success.
- Immerse Yourself in Campus Living: Experience vibrant campus living with an overnight stay in our residence halls! Limited accommodations are available for those traveling from outside the Willamette Valley. Students stay in lively halls with shared bathrooms, while families enjoy suite-style accommodations nearby.
- Family-Focused Support: Parents and families, your involvement is not just encouraged—it's celebrated! Gain valuable insights into supporting your student's transition to university life during our tailored sessions. Whether it's your first student heading off to college or you're seasoned in higher education, our comprehensive support ensures you're equipped for OSU's unique landscape.

What to expect when signing up for Black & Indigenous Student Success Connections

Experience the community at our in-person Black and Indigenous Student Success Connections! Join us as we shine a spotlight on vibrant living-learning communities and an array of academic and student success resources tailored to help Black and Indigenous students thrive. Discover a supportive community where you can connect, grow, and make lasting memories during your first term at OSU!

What to expect when signing up for Virtual START

Virtual START caters to self-motivated students who possess existing support networks at OSU or in Corvallis. It offers a more streamlined version of the START program, ideal for older than traditional aged students, those who need flexibility while in the fire service or military, and those who excel at creating community connections independently. This asynchronous format provides optional engagement opportunities, allowing students to participate as they're able.
